THE CRYPTO CHALLENGE CONTEST

THE LAST NOTE

Author: Bernhard Esslinger

September 2014

On the last page of the thrilling German novel "Die achte Offenbarung" by Karl Olsberg (© 2013) you can find the following cryptogram:

Annotations

It is an monoalphabetic cipher.

The plaintext is German. There is no difference between upper- and lowercase letters. Furthermore, "u" is not different from "v". The gaps between the glyphs are normal blanks that usually separate words.

Please send the solution in the following format: Use only capital letters and blanks. If you need to use a "v", please replace it by an "U" in the solution.
